

It is unconscionable that Sinclair Broadcasting is forcing their stations to air an anti-Kerry "documentary" without airing an opposing anti-bush documentary. That is not News. It is heavily biased "info-tainment".

Since Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, it is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something produced at "News Central" far away, it's more important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter in an unbiased fashion.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
